Thank you Sharon. I'll try some of these numbers and see what happens.

Hi Lance,

Attached are several reports I found on Ocwen. On page 12 of the Clear report on the (b) (6) address, there is an Ocwen office in Fort Washington, Penn. I found a phone number (215-682-1000) for Ocwen in Pennsylvania on Metronet and Whitepages that gives you an option to talk to an agent., but I didn't go further. There is also a number listed on Hoovers (b) (6) which is voice mail for a (b) (6) (sp?), but I didn't try leaving a message. I found some listings for a Tom Lieber, but none seemed to be the right person.

Hopefully, these numbers will connect with someone who can help. If not, please let me know, and I'll do further searches. There is a lot of information on Ocwen, but not sure which is most helpful.

Thanks,

Sharon Braby

Subject: More Help for Wilcox

Lance, I have been informed that one of the properties in Bristow related to the Wilcox site is no longer a property managed or owned by Fannie Mae but has supposedly fallen back to the original lender Ocwen. I have included the web page I found related to the company. From the looks of the web site and the numbers provided to me by the realtor that was managing the property for Fannie Mae, there is no direct link to talk with a person.

Can you please find out how to contact this company to obtain access?

Thanks you very much.

Request Katie 918-671-0969 – she indicated to me that Fannie Mae does not own/manage the property and that it has fallen back to Ocwen
